General Information

Welcome to the City of Mount Vernon Golf Course.

One of the most beautiful courses in the area, this nine-hole, par 35 course sets among the picturesque rolling hills along Highway 174, northeast of downtown Mt. Vernon. The course, with bent grass greens, features year round play and a practice green. Paved paths run throughout this irrigated course. Equipment, food and beverages are available in the Pro Shop and Snack Bar. Call in advance for tee times on Saturdays, Sundays and Holidays. Weekday tee times are recommended but not required.

GENERAL RULES

- All Persons must register at the pro-shop before playing.
- Players and guest use the golf course at their own risk.
- Players may practice only in designated practice areas.
- The golf course is to be used exclusively for the playing of golf or golf related activities. Any exceptions to this rule must be issued in writing.
- Golf Course Manager, or authorized designee shall have the right to close the golf course to play when conditions warrant. Frost/weather delay policy dictates that tee times will be pushed back in order when the course experiences rain, weather or frost delays.
